

HESI INFORMATION REGISTRATION AND DEADLINES

WHAT IS HESI—HESI is a self-contained, computerized test. There is a calculator provided online within the test for the math portion. This test is part of the pre-admission criteria for admittance into SC4’s nursing programs, and the radiologic technology program.

HOW TO STUDY—The test has several sections: Anatomy & Physiology, Grammar, Math, Reading Comprehension, Vocabulary, Critical Thinking, Learning Styles, and Personality Profile. See www.sc4.edu/nursing for individual program criteria.

The library does have copies of the HESI Admissions Assessment Study Guide on reserve. Our Campus Bookstore also has copies for sale 810-989-5725, or check the publisher website, www.evolve.elsevier.com

TIME—We schedule blocks of 4.5 hours for the testing, however, most students complete the test in 2-3 hours.

HOW TO REGISTER

Registration for all HESI tests is done through The Pier online registration and payment system. A credit or debit card is required. Be sure to select the correct version of the HESI and the date you wish to take the test.

Bring your printed receipt from The Pier transaction to the Testing Center on the day of the test, along with required ID.

Walk-ins without pre-registrations are not permitted on the test day.

CREATE HESI/STUDENT EVOLVE ACCOUNT—After registering for the HESI test at SC4's Testing Center, you will need to create an account at Elsevier Evolve (the company that owns the HESI test) by going to:

<http://evolve.elsevier.com/studentlife/hesi.html>.

Bring this account information on the test day. Please use your real name so test results can be obtained by the nursing office staff.

WHAT TO BRING ON TEST DAY--

- Receipt from The Pier for registration and payment for the test
- HESI/Student Evolve account ID and password (see above step)
- Driver's license or state photo ID

HOW THE TEST IS RUN—

- You can select the order of the sections in which to take the test. To maximize your time on the critical thinking sections, it is recommended you take Math, Reading Comprehension, and Anatomy first; then complete the other sections.
- Read all the instructions on the test before proceeding.
- Upon finishing a section, proceed to another section. Do not print out test results of individual sections; staff will print your results at end of testing.
- Blank scrap paper and a pencil will be provided. Please hand in both at end of test (even if paper is blank).
- Once an answer to a question is recorded, it cannot be changed.
- Questions cannot be skipped; you must answer in the sequence they are asked.

COMPLETING THE TEST—

- When finished testing, quietly inform staff that you have completed the entire test. They will print a summary sheet of results for you. The complete results will be sent to you by HESI/Evolve to the email address you provided.
- SC4 Testing Center staff cannot provide assistance, address questions regarding test content, or interpret test results.
- HESI scores are final.

TESTING CENTER GUIDELINES—

- Use of cell phones, pagers, iPods, MP3 players, or other electronic devices are not allowed.
- Eating or drinking is not permitted during the test.
- No hats, caps, or other types of headwear are allowed to be worn while taking the test. Also, no hooded sweatshirts are allowed to be worn during the test.
- Minor children are not allowed in the test room, or allowed to wait for a parent completing a test in the Testing Center.
- No written or oral communication may occur during the test period.

APPLICANTS WHO DO NOT OBSERVE THE ABOVE RULES WILL BE ASKED TO LEAVE THE TESTING SITE.

DISABILITY ACCOMMODATIONS--If you have a disability that would prevent you from taking the HESI exam under standard conditions, you may request special accommodations and arrangements. Appropriate documentation of disability must be provided the day of your test.

Contact the Testing Center at 810-989-5555, a minimum of 2 weeks before your scheduled test date to arrange special accommodations. NO accommodations will be made on test day if prior arrangements have not been made.
