Resolution of the Board of Trustees

Whereas Black History Month is an opportunity to recognize the contributions, experiences, and achievements of African Americans;

Whereas February is officially recognized as Black History Month;

Whereas the theme of the 2023 St. Clair County Community College Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration event is "Daring to Dream: The Radical Imagination of a New Generation," which is but one education event by the College;

Whereas the work and effort to recognize the depth and breadth of the contributions of African Americans is an ongoing educational endeavor;

Whereas St. Clair County Community College embraces a leadership role in encouraging, supporting, and promoting education;

Whereas we appreciate and support all organizations in our area working to recognize the contributions of African Americans; and

Whereas St. Clair County Community College is committed to valuing diversity, equity and inclusion; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, that the St. Clair County Community College Board of Trustees, along with President Deborah A. Snyder, Ph.D.:

- recognizes the contributions of African Americans; and
- urges the entire College community to celebrate February as Black History Month.

Approved, this 12th day of January 2023.
